J. L. P. and J. S .- Received yours, and straighten the matter thus: the paper now stands credited for the present (6th) and the next (7:h) volumes, two years in advance. We conversed with G. on the matter, and he said we were correct, acknowledging that he would be remonsible. We will see that all is right.

Our friends at Richmond, Terre Haute, Valpuraise, and numerous ther places, are assured that we have similar intelligence from all parts of the State. The " new campaigners" connet or will not profit by the experience of the post. We also wish "that Jo would issue another circular, acknowledging the corn, and badly trying to hide it."
